Alpine Industries Double Recycling Center - Plastic/Cardboard Recycle Trash Bin Buy on Amazon How to Choose the Best Recycling Bin for The Office You might think you can just purchase any old recycling container, but there are a few things to consider before making your selection. Here are some important factors: Aesthetics Your recycle bin should not stick out like a sore thumb. It should blend with the environment, meaning it should look good while doing the job. You can also incorporate your brand into it to instill a sense of ownership. Capacity of Recycling Containers An important thing to consider is that the bin should be large enough to suit your recycling needs until emptied. You should consider how much waste your workplace generates every day and how many people do you expect to use each container between cleanings? These questions will determine the capacity you need. Your options might include personal, commercial, and industrial sizes, from a few gallons to a few dozen gallons. The size of your new bin will also determine the size of your recycling bag and should fit accordingly. Material of Recycling Bins Factor in each container's durability, cost, and how it's constructed. Make sure the unit you decide to purchase is made from durable material, preferably plastic or stainless steel. What you decide to recycle will also determine the recycling bin you need. Are you disposing of standard waste, medical waste, food waste, etc.? Easy to Clean Having a sloppy, dirty bin is not likely to entice people to recycle. Make sure your bin is made from durable, easy to clean material to keep it looking and smelling fresh. Importance of Office Recycling Bins Instituting recycling in your workplace is important as waste has a huge negative impact on the natural environment. More and more harmful chemicals and greenhouse gasses are released from trash at landfill sites. Fortunately, greater attention is being paid to waste management; businesses that are proactive about a recycling program are seeing the benefits, such as decreasing disposal costs. Recycling helps to reduce the pollution caused by waste and helps address high raw material prices, rising costs of waste treatment and disposal, and pressure to increase the sustainability of your operations. Come up with a waste reduction plan, and implement a waste audit to determine what can be reduced, reused, or recycled. Encouraging recycling in your small business can help your bottom line, as well as help our most important resource - our environment.
